Plaintiff Larry Orls asserts in case #

105 CV 1170 defense counsel wrongfully asserted no documents existed to show cause of increased wages to

The Court on 8-6-06, yet produced same documents at ILWC trial

where Central Plaza was non-party on 8-16-10. This adversely affected trial for ILWC benefits against

Plaintiff Larry Orls against B.E. & whose defense counsel produced documents during trial. Yet these documents were declared

non-existing to the Court on 8-6-06.

then plaintiff filed this Complaint in Case # 104 004355 against

Central Plaza, now seeking relief from a declaratory judgment against all defendants,

respectfully submitted,

Larry Orls

*note plaintiff also asserts case # 08 CV 1518

was settled in open

Court on Larry Orls vs

Continental on 3-20-09

but later settlement revoked on 12-4-12

when def. Continental filed new action at Cook

County on fraud charges against plaintiff.

TO THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT OF NORTHERN EASTERN ILLINOIS

I Introduction:

Now comes plaintiff Larry Oruta asserting violation of constitutional rights and civil Rights granted under the 14th amendment of due process and equal protection, which Constitutes state violated constitution under the color of state law by intentional ~~on~~ grounds on face

II Constitutional jurisdiction :

Title 28 USC (1331)(a) grants the US district court original jurisdiction under art.III To adjudicate such denied state action where court misconduct has occurs under state Color of law by state official obstructs statutory rights due to judicial racial bias.

III Points and authorities:

Plaintiff was granted final judgment by the state court on 1-23-12 but the state trial court Stayed judgment on grounds of fraudulent allegations by court officials in order to criminalize A civil case in which relief was already granted by post trial court.

1 Government of employers ins. Conc. VS Summon C n-8(MO) 1980 917F.2d 1144 allowed Allowed removal.

2 state authority have no power directly withhold conditions unfettered rights to exercise of A stature of removal.

3 Fresquez VS Fansworth Schumber CA 38,F.2d 70 (1956) allowed removal.

IV statement of facts:

1 Plaintiff was granted final judgment by the post-trial state court on 1-23-12.

2 State court intentionally stayed a final judgment on false allegations of different

Court case under ILWC previously litigated for a settlement on case 08CV1518

Whereby the state court accused plaintiff of fraud charges which later dismissed.

But the state court continuous to deny relief on grounds of state color of law.

3The state court now alleges no final judgment and has threatened me with contempt

Of court several times in order to deny any relief.

V Arguments :

Plaintiff asserts judicial bias based on race by state officials who have compromised by

Defense counsel which occurred on 12-4-12 when a state official influenced ex-judge

Hon W. Maddux who was later removed from the bench on 13-130-13. Thus plaintiff

Is being blamed for the disqualifications, yet he allowed the post-trial proceedings for collection.

Therefore, under title 28USC (1441(a)(b)(c) and title 28 USC ( 1331)a) the US district court is

Is vested with judicial tribunal when there is state court misconduct and allows removal

Complaint. Case law Fresquez VS Fansworth cited above.

VI Conclusion :

Plaintiff asserts that the US district court has jurisdiction to grant this removal under title

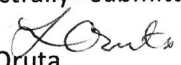

28USC(1441)(a)(b) and title 28USC(1331)(a) under art. III under constitutional mandate

~~For original jurisdiction., thus removal action is proper for case # 10L43355 pending at state~~

Court after final determination of litigations, thus adjudication be granted under Declaratory judgment.

Respectfully submitted

Larry Oruta.
